FIRE:

Chief presented invoice for having outside light(s) fixed and for testing of outside siren $455. It was agreed to split the invoice in half between fire and maintenance. Other invoices for totaling $1,245 were presented and approved by the Commissioners. Chief noted that a new Lieutenant had been hired, David Bellimer at a salary of $150.00 and an hourly rate of $11.00. Chief noted that Michael Pecor was promoted to Lieutenant at a salary of $150.00 and an hourly rate of $11.00. Paperwork for both were approved and signed by the Commissioners. Chief presented Payroll(s) for September totaling $ 2,146.34, which was approved by the Commissioners. Chief has checked into the cost of repairing the back outside stairway and estimates the total cost will be between $900 and $1,000. Commissioners would like this project completed as soon as possible. Chief will contact the representative of Ferreira and schedule a meeting to include Commissioner Kiniry to discuss the purchasing of a new fire truck.

WATER:

Bob will take Lead and Copper Samples next week. He will be contacting 15 different households to participate. Paperwork is being prepared. Water has been shut off at 8 East Street and will be shut off soon at 4 Birch and 6 Willow as no one is living there. Hodgkins has repaired the road to the reservoir. A new meter has been installed at 1164 Main Street. Discussed timetable for doing Cathodic protection and anode replacement as approved at the April Village Meeting.
